Mark: Have you ( 7 ) visited Sea World?

Mika: Yes, I have. It has a lot of living things from the sea. We can see a dolphin show, too.

Mark: That sounds ( イ ). I love dolphins.

Mika: Me, too. Let's go to Sea World this weekend.

Mark: Well, I want to go, but I won't be free this Saturday and Sunday. How about this Friday? We have no classes on this Friday afternoon.

Mika: That's a good idea, but can we see the show on Friday?

Mark: Don't worry. Look here. There are shows in the afternoon, too.

Mika: OK, then ( ゥ ) don't you meet me at the *entrance at 14:00? First, let's see many kinds of living things and enjoy the show last.

Mark: That's a good idea.

Mika: Do you know how to get there?

Mark : I have no idea. Is ⊥ it difficult for us to arrive there?

Mika: In fact, it is not so much. We'll take the bus which goes to Pacific Park at the South Station and we can get off at the 才9番目のbus stop. Sea World is in front of the bus stop by the convenience store.

Mark: Sounds easy. Well,  $\frac{\pi (1) \text{ to}/(2) \text{ you}/(3) \text{ with}/(4) \text{ want}/(5) \text{ go}/(6) \text{ me}/(7) \text{ I})}{1}$ . How about having lunch together near the station before we take the bus? There is a nice pizza restaurant near the station. Let's meet at 12:30 at the station.

Mika: ( * ). I agree with you.
